Team USA has selected the words “Ichi-go Ichi-e” for our T-Shirt design. The words translated literally mean “One Chance, One Opportunity,” and represent the fact that there is only one chance to seize any single opportunity presented in life. The members of Team USA will wear these T-Shirts in Brazil to constantly remind each other that we must make the most of our one chance to seize the opportunity presented to us at the 14th World Kendo Championships.

Introduction of Artist:

The kanji on the T-Shirt was written by Mr. Shihou Fujii, a professional calligraphy artist based in Kyoto, Japan. For more information, see www.shihoufujii.com.
